Cheyenne Brown (harp) and Dave Currie (dobro/guitar/vocals) are 2/3s of the North Atlantic Trio. They combine Scottish, Irish, old-time Appalachian and bluegrass music with their own original compositions in a unique music mix. All that is required is an interest in France and the French way of life. The ability to speak a little French can be useful but is not essential as most French twinningers speak some English. The Association is run by a small committee elected annually.
